

Advertising for WGSS Week

Check out the WGSS Art Wall "Feminism is for Everybody!"

Monday, April 14, 7-8:00pm, Scovel 105

Dr. Martin Manalansan, Everyday Struggles of Undocumented Queer Immigrants of Color

Co-sponsored by Spectrum & WGSS

[photo below, or find a less fuzzy one online]

Tuesday, April 15, 7pm, CoRE Multimedia Space, Andrews Library

Film Screening & Talk with Director, Jonah Mossberg (via Skype from OSU) Out Here: A Documentary Film about the Hearts & Hard Work of Queer Farmers in the U.S.

Co-sponsored by Ohio State University: Agroecosystems Management Program, Environmental Studies, WGSS

[see individual brochure below]

Wednesday, April 16, 7:30-9pm, Babcock Formal Lounge

Open Box: Questions about Sex

An open discussion co-sponsored by VOX & WGSS

Thursday, April 17, 4-5:30pm, Babcock Formal Lounge

All Gender Bathrooms at Wooster: A Conversation about Trans* Inclusivity with alums Will Sherry and Estancia Cota

Co-sponsored by WGSS, C3, CDGE, Spectrum & k(NO)w

Monday, April 21-Wednesday, April 23, 8:15pm, Freedlander Theatre (free)

Women of Ciudad Juárez

written by Cristina Michaus

directed and translated by Jimmy A. Noriega

with Marisa Adame, Stephanie Castrejon, Janna Haywood, Summit J. Starr

Co-sponsored by Comparative Literature; English; History; Political Science; Psychology; Sociology and Anthropology; Spanish; Theatre and Dance; International Relations; Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies; Cultural Events Committee; Center for Diversity and Global Engagement; The Office of the President.

Cristina Michaus will also give a lecture on Tuesday, Apr 22, 7-8pm

"Femicide and Impunity in Juárez: Art, Activism, and Women's Rights in Mexico"

[Photo Below]

Cristina Michaus